A weir on the main race of the Waiau Irrigation Scheme taken in 1981.

Is this a dying art?

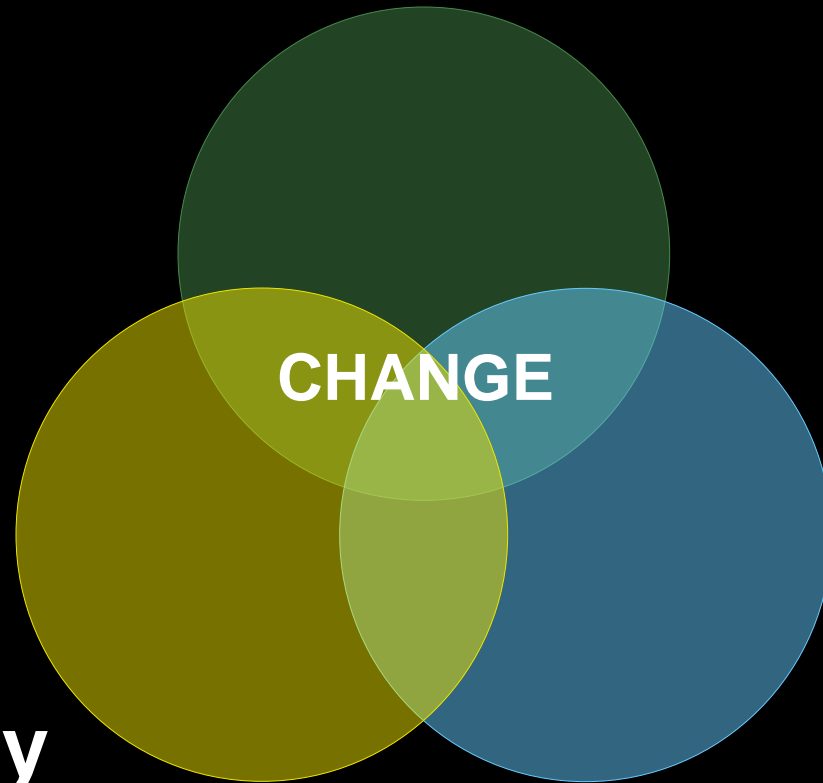

Clearing sales & sheep departures become features.
